PUBLIC SESSION

Tom Preisel, 1606 Green Acres Drive - Spoke about deer management and explained the problems he is having with the deer.

Brian Antonik, 7312 Ward Road - Spoke about the deer problem and the accident he had, because of the deer, while riding his motorcycle near Padua High School.

Brandon Yanak - Young man who helped organize Ohio's First Animal Guardian Community - Stated he was on Spring break from college and stopped in to attend a Council Meeting, He brought a few Guardian Magazines with him to give to Council. He also made comments regarding the deer.

John Mack - Metro Parks - Spoke about the deer issue.

Councilman Tuma - Asked questions regarding the sharp shooting and bow hunting of deer.

John Mack - Answered his questions.

Councilman Napoli - Stated - seeing as we're so populated and overrun with deer now, and we've invested so much money in this West Creek, I would hope that there is a strong consideration for the deer management program in this area, just to keep everything going.

John Mack - Made a few more comments relative to the deer.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

Mayor DeGeeter - Gave Council Economic Development updates. Stated - regarding Resolution No. 54-12, "SAVE OUR HOMES MONTH", reminded Council that they can pass that out to any constituents. This Thursday, there's a foreclosure workshop from six to nine at our Senior Center.

- Safety Director Baeppler - Made comments relative to the deer problems. Stated - no disagreement, it is a serious problem, but it's County wide and State wide. Mentioned that last week in either Westlake or Bay Village at the Bradley Road Nursing Home a deer came through a window. Stated that we are doing the right thing now working with the Metroparks.

- Service Director Higgins - No comment.

- Law Director Dobeck - No comment.

- Treasurer Mastroianni - Reminded everyone that on Sunday, March 25th, it will be one year our dear friend Anthony passed away. So, Sunday take a moment and if the weather is nice, go and play at Anthony Zielinski Park. I'm sure he would enjoy that. Just take a moment Sunday to pause and remember him. He did a lot for all of us and all of the citizens.

- Councilwoman Lime - Made comments relative to the cat problems.

- Councilman Napoli - Mentioned the Deer Management Program. Thanked the people from the Water Shed and all the work that is being done for storm management.

- Councilman Tuma - Commended Mayor DeGeeter and his Administration with respect to balancing the Budget. Commended his colleagues on Council for asking tough questions and, again, transparency is such an important part of what we do here. Made comments relative to the deer problem. Commended Assistant Building Commissioner Graves for the seminar he helped set up on foreclosures. God Bless Anthony.

- Councilman Brochetti - Thanked the Administration and all the Directors for being so knowledgeable on their Budgets and presenting so well and answering our questions. Stated - this was my first Budget and I was incredibly impressed. Mentioned the deer problems.

Councilman Casselberry - Thanked the folks from Metroparks for being here tonight. Stated - it was nice to hear about the storm water improvement and also the deer management.

Councilman Day - Made comments relative to deer management. Stated - It's a complex issue and it's something we will continue to work on.

- Councilman Divis - Commended the Mayor for holding the Economic Summit. He attended it with other colleagues, and it was certainly positioned Parma as a great place to bring business to and also to promote your business. Thanked Finance Committee Chairman Scot Tuma for his part in balancing the Budget.

- Councilwoman Galinas - Thanked Brandon for bringing them a copy of the Guardian International and it's great that Parma is noted as the 18th Garden City, and we have our name on the cover. Thanked the Metroparks folks for being here. Made comments relative to the deer problem. Thanked Ray Frank from Columbia Gas and his administration for replacing a lot of the risers on some of the streets in Ward 1. Made comments regarding a Spring Cleanup Day in Parma.

Councilman Jech - Thanked the Metropark representatives for being here. Mentioned that the renewal on the moratorium on internet cafes is coming up again. Stated - I don't know if anyone had a chance to read the article regarding Cleveland enforcing and closing down the internet cafes in their city. I know we have one in our City. Questioned the Safety Director and the Administration as to why we can't close it down. Mentioned that he is going to request legislation, and he does not know the House Bill number, but there is legislation being considered about concealed weapons when someone is driving a vehicle. Also, he is interested in legislation regarding feeding the animals along with legislation regarding rental properties.

Mr. Brennan - Made comments regarding the Economic Summit the Mayor had.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion made by Councilman Day, seconded by Councilwoman Lime, to adjourn said meeting. Motion carried.
